

Your father

*Parting company with your father, your rock, your proud dad.
You look increasingly like him
and increasingly act just like he did.*

*But never again, your hart is aching and your grief immeasurable.
But whoever or whatever you love never really leaves and never truly dies.*

Ed

Dear Ed, dad, and lover of life. Your wonderfully Burgundian lifestyle, but above all your social engagement with others and your love for us will be truly missed.
